

Inside Out Theatre presents...

Winter Theatre Classes!

A Second Look Between Friends - Inside Out Theatre is partnering with The Between Friends Club to bring our popular Second Look program to young people between the ages 13 - 17. A Second Look is an introductory drama class for people with little to no experience, but who are interested in getting creative and learning to perform.

Thursdays, beginning 26 January 2012. 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. at the Hillhurst United Church (1227 Kensington Close NW).

Sign Theatre for Young People - Inside Out Theatre is proud to introduce this new program for young people. Sign Theatre is all about teens having fun, growing their creativity, taking risks, and learning the basics of drama. Taught by local deaf and hard-of-hearing artists, participants will learn to perform through innovative use of ASL, body language, and facial expression. For youths ages 12 - 17. Sundays, beginning 5 February 2012. 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. at DHHS, 63 Cornell Road NW

Winter programming starts 26 January 2012

Inside Out Theatre offers high-quality drama education and creative opportunities in theatre to people with mixed abilities and special needs, where they can experience fellowship, personal development, and the pleasure of creativity.

Registration fees vary.

For more information or to register, contact us at info@insideouttheatre.com or 403-282-4801.

Alberta
Foundation
for the Arts

THE CITY OF CALGARY
Proudly serving a great city

Government of Alberta